Miss Forbes Hostess To Pundita Circle

The Pundita Circle of Campbell met May 7th, at the pleasant home of Miss May Forbes, in College Park. Nearly all the members, and several friends, were "among those present." The program opened with a musical selection on the victrola, "The British Bull Dog at the Door," followed by a reading, "Home Thoughts," from Browning, by Mrs. M. E. Purmort. An Old Christmas Hymn as played on the Westminster chimes, was greatly enjoyed by all. A reading from Wordsworth, by Mrs. Harry Williams; music, "Morris Dance," as played by Percy Grainger; a reading from "English Gardens," by Mrs. R. B. Henry; an old sea chantry, "One More Day, John," followed in sequence.

Miss Forbes gave an interesting talk on England, working up from the days of the Angles, Saxons and Jutes, to the time of William the Conqueror, touching lightly upon the history of Kings and Religion, until reaching the time of the poet, Tennyson, and author, Dickens, she gave her impressions of England as received from the romantic history of English kings and the real life of the middle and poorer classes as depicted by Dickens—her hearers agreeing with her that England was a land equally as full of romance as either of the southern countries, Spain or Italy.

A waltz song by Melba, from La Tosca; a recitative record, "Charge of the Light Brigade;" "Little Birdies," as sung by Galli-Curci; reading from John Watson, "Things that are more excellent," by Mrs. I. P. Beal; and music, "Meadow Lark," finished the program.

The decorations of roses, English ivy and hawthorn, or English May, imparted an English atmosphere to the meeting which was heightened by refreshments of toasted muffins, jam, tea cakes and tea, with walnut taffy served in primrose receptacles. Mrs. B. O. Curry was the associate hostess.

The next meeting of the Circle will be a picnic lunch, given by Mrs. H. A. Watrous, at Gilroy, May 26.

Masons Hosts

Masonic ladies' night was a most enjoyable social affair given by the local Masons for their wives, Friday evening.

The committee made preparation for entertainment for all tastes in the manner of music, cards, dancing and eats, leaving nothing undone.

At the beginning of the program, Dr. W. I. Merrill, chairman of the committee, introduced Mr. C. H. Whitman, who made a few remarks of welcome and consolation to the ladies whose husbands had been detained at lodge so late "making plans" for this pleasant occasion.

Mr. Amos Williams, one of the most popular tenor soloists of the valley, gave two very pleasing solos, accompanied by Dr. Merrill at the piano.

A social hour then followed, with music in the card room and music in the ball room. Dancing and cards were enjoyed until the refreshments were announced, when all repaired to the banquet room. This banquet, prepared by Mrs. Miller, of the G. E. Hyde cafeteria, was a most enjoyable part of a joyful evening.

So much pleasure was realized from the affair, that already some are clamoring for another similar one in the near future.

The Campbell School eighth grade enjoyed its annual class picnic at Alum Rock, last Saturday, being chaperoned by Mr. Rodriguez, principal.

Lyle Trevor, who has a motor repair shop in the Richmond district, San Francisco, was here the first of the week, visiting his father. He reports his business, with everything in the district, on the boom.

Mrs. H. W. Higbie went to Sacramento Monday as a delegate from the Out-Door Art League to the State Federation of Women's Clubs, to be gone the week. Poor H. W. is already kicking on his own cooking, while the dog, cat, cow and chickens seem to thrive about the same.

"Uncle Ed" states that he is again host to his annual Spring guests, about 200 barn swallows, whom he gladly welcomes every year. These supposedly destructive pests are a great blessing to the orchardists in his vicinity, for as bug and worm catchers they beat the sprayers, he says, and while rearing their young make raids on the insect kingdom for their food supply. He destroys the nests after the first hatching has flown.

Join the Waste Paper Campaign

Among the many delightful afternoons enjoyed this year, the program presented to the Country Woman's Club, Monday, was one of the very good ones.

The subject, "The Inspiration of Good Literature," was under the direction of Mrs. Lillie Shaw, and Mrs. G. S. Robson, the latter giving a brief, but brightly interesting and comprehensive survey of the English writers whom critics concede as standards.

Mrs. Shaw spoke briefly of the objects of reading, and dwelt upon the advantages of a home library and its effects upon the formation of literary taste of children—reading, in illustration, delightfully humorous but realistic articles from the Atlantic Monthly.

The next meeting, to be held May 24, will be the annual meeting, and a full attendance is urged. The president called attention to the fact that all dues must be paid up to date to entitle members to vote. The meeting will be held at the library, but will be an innovation, in being also a social.

Mention was made of the sale of Chautauqua tickets, and everyone urged to help a little, as only by united effort will there be a surplus for the library fund.

Also, the whole community is asked to help in a waste-paper campaign. Newspapers folded once and tied, and magazines bundled, may be left at the library on Saturday. The proceeds will be used to keep up the library, as the funds of the Club are running low, and in addition, the Department of Agriculture urges this conservation to help relieve the acute shortage of paper, and save the forests, which are being sacrificed so rapidly to manufacture wood pulp. Everybody help all that is possible, and see what united effort will accomplish.

It Is Yours

Your Chautauqua is coming. It is yours much more than it is Radcliffe's or that of the guarantors of your town who bring it here.

But it is yours only provided you make it yours by boosting and supporting it and co-operating with those who bring it here, just as they co-operate with Radcliffe.

We are all linked up with each other more intimately than we may realize. We travel along life's highway hand in hand, although we do not always grip the full force of the fact.

The better we keep step with each other in our march of progress to higher levels, the easier and happier we make the journey both for ourselves and our comrades.

Your Radcliffe Chautauqua program sounds the keynote for the onward march.

It helps men, women and children to tune up mentally and morally.

It is only when all fall in line and keep step, marching ahead in unison, that the things worth while can be attained. And this is the mission of your Chautauqua.

Like the big martial band leading its regiment with music that quickens the spirit and makes the heart beat faster, your Chautauqua comes here to vibrate new thoughts, new feelings and new ideals.

So now you are linked up with the guarantors of your community to make your Chautauqua a triumph, just as they are linked up with Radcliffe to make this Chautauqua of yours possible to your community. But—again we emphasize—you must make it yours, by your co-operation.

For what costs nothing is worth nothing. And your support and co-operation will repay you over and over again in things that are more valuable than dollars and cents.

Mrs. Charles Townsend was up from Hollister Monday. She reports that Mr. Townsend is steadily improving, and the swelling is leaving his hand and arm, although he cannot use it yet.

Save Twenty Per Cent

Blaine's Steel-Cut Coffee was splendid value already. We did not need to improve it; but we did. We asked the coffee man to put in Blaine's Coffee the blend that he calls his very best.

He wrote back: "If you want, under your private label, a coffee that you can honestly say is as good as any coffee, anywhere, at any price, I can blend that for you. But you cannot make much profit on this coffee if you sell it for 50c. It is worth more than that."

We wanted it to be worth more. We wanted Blaine's Coffee to be a 60c quality at the old 50c price. We wanted a coffee that we should be proud to sell, and our customers would be proud to buy.

So we improved Blaine's Steel-Cut Coffee to make it a leader—a real bargain. And a bargain it is.

The new blend goes on sale with the publication of this advertisement. The price is 50c, the quality is 60c. The saving of ten cents is more than it sounds, for it is twenty per cent on your investment.

Say, "I want Blaine's Steel-Cut Coffee!"

MODERN KNIGHT ERRANT
SHEATHES HIS SWORD

San Francisco.—A modern knight is Maj. Gen. Littleton W. T. Waller of the Marines, known lovingly as "Tony," who after 40 years devoted to chivalry of the sword has been retired at the age of 64.

Until his retirement made at his own request, Major General Waller was known as "the oldest officer in the oldest branch of the service."

His brilliant record reads like the career of a knight of the Middle

Maj. Gen. L. W. T. Waller

Ages, for wherever distress, oppression or disorder flared up, there was to be found the bright flashing saber of General Waller.

In 1882 he commanded a force of 60 United States Marines in Alexandria and with the British refused to withdraw with the French and Italians, thus preventing an attack by Aribi Pacha, the Rebel.

Eighteen years later he and his gallants helped protect the foreign legation during the Boxer uprising and flew to the relief of women and children facing death in Peking.

In 1906 when San Francisco was in ruins he commanded the Marines whose services in helping the refugees and keeping order have never been forgotten.

In 1914 he commanded a brigade during the occupation of Vera Cruz.

General Waller's traditions are being carried forth in his two sons, one a major who fought in Belleau Wood, and the other a lieutenant of Marines.

FOOD PRICES IN U. S.
DOUBLED WITHIN 7 YRS

Washington.—The family food budget in February was twice the sum expended for the like articles of food in February, 1913, according to Department of Labor statistics.

During the year ending last February in this country sugar increased in price 76 per cent. Potatoes went over the top to the tune of a 275 per cent increase since February, 1913.

MASSACHUSETTS PSEUDO
BEER BILL VETOED
BY GOVERNOR COOLIDGE

Boston.—Governor Coolidge vetoed a bill intended to legalize the manufacture and sale of beverages containing not more than 2.75 per cent of alcohol in this State. His veto message said:

"There is little satisfaction in attempting to deceive ourselves, and there is grave danger in attempting to deceive the people. If this act were placed on the statute books today it would provide no beer for the people. Not until the Supreme Court talks," he added.

SOLDIER BONUS BILLS ARE DOOMED TO DELAY

Washington.—After a series of informal conferences, Democratic and Republican members of the House agreed there was no prospect of enactment of soldier relief legislation before the forthcoming recess for the political conventions.

RETIREMENT IN CIVIL SERVICE WILL BE AT 70

Washington.—Conferees on the Civil Service Retirement Bill reached an agreement today, fixing the general retirement age at 70 years. Letter-carriers and Government mechanics would be retired at 65 years and railway mail service employees at 62.

JEWISH PEOPLE TO SETTLE IN HOMELAND

Many Millions Are Anxious to Return to Palestine After Long Exile

New York.—Arrangements for the gradual immigration of 4,000,000 Jews to Palestine following the San Remo sessions of the peace conference which gave Great Britain the mandate over that country for the establishment of a Jewish national homeland, was discussed at an extraordinary conference of the Zionist organization of America here Sunday and Monday.

The conference, which was attended by 1700 delegates from the United States and Canada, was, it is said, "the most important and historic gathering of Jews ever held in America." Under the leadership of Justice Brandeis of the United States Supreme Court and United States Judge Julian W. Mack the organization is expected to take immediate action toward the re-establishment of the Jewish people in Near East after 2000 years of exile, thus bringing to pass the realization of the movement begun 23 years ago by Dr. Theodore Herzl, father of political Zionism.

Although millions of Jews, particularly from Eastern Europe, are said to be prepared to leave at a moment's notice, the Zionists say that "no mad rush of immigrants will be permitted to flood Palestine," but that a well-regulated, carefully scientific immigration of perhaps 50,000 annually will be undertaken, in order to insure the proper economic and cultural development of the country.

SEX OF HUMANS OR
CHICK TOLD BY SPHERE

Are you sure of your sex? If not, science has discovered a way to convince the most skeptical.

Joseph Milburn, a California inventor, after years of experimenting, has finally constructed an instrument which he says will reveal the sex of plants, animals or humans, dead or alive. The future of an egg can be determined by this instrument before the shell is broken. Even skeletons and skulls have been forced to unfold the sex of the individual of which they were once a part.

The sektester or sextester, alternate names which have been adopted for the instrument, resembles the bouncing ball of childhood games a generation ago. The tiny sphere is about the size of a marble suspended on a cord. The bottom of the ball has a metal base. The ball is filled with the chemicals which, it is supposed, are attracted by the male and females in a different manner.

Demonstrations of the sex detector show a rotary movement of the ball when suspended over a female. The strength of the male species of the animal of human is manifested when the two clash.

With the sex detector held over the palm of a female, the motion of the instrument will change from horizontal to rotary when an egg containing an unborn rooster is placed in the other hand of the woman.

Poultry raisers at San Mateo have this instrument to ferret out nature's secrets before the chick picks its way out of the shell.

The inventor claims to have determined the sex of a chunk of beef through this mysterious sex loadstone. It is even predicted that the sex of unborn babes may be determined through the use of the little red ball on a string, although these experiments have not been extensive.

The chemical composition of the contents of the ball are a profound secret in the Milburn family. The inventor refuses to take out a patent on the instrument for fear of having his discovery fall into unscrupulous hands.

STARTER'S SHOT KILLS
WOMAN VIEWING RACE

Bowling Green, Ohio.—While attending a school field meet in which her son was a participant, Mrs. F. Mahl, mother of three children, was instantly killed when a bullet, said to have been fired from a starter's pistol, struck here in the chest. Death at first was thought due to heart disease.

San Mateo.—San Mateo's city jail will be the last word in cleanliness if the plans of Mrs. Elsa M. McGinn, the new Police Commissioner, carry. Mrs. McGinn, who is president of the San Mateo Woman's Club, addressed her first communication to the Trustees May 4, in which she outlined her plans to make every prisoner that found his way into the city bastille work until the place was clean as a model kitchen. Mrs. McGinn also said that she proposed to ask for new fire apparatus and a comfort station for the women.

MAY DAY SCARE
SCORED AS PLOT

Palmer's Warning Called Part Propaganda Against Labor Says President of Brotherhood

Washington.—Attorney General Palmer's warning of threatened May-day violence and announcement of steps taken to prevent it were assailed before the Railroad Labor Board by Timothy Healy, president of the Brotherhood of Stationary Firemen and Oilers, as a part of what he characterized as "a dispicable propaganda against labor."

Such propaganda, Healy said, was begun less than 24 hours after the signing of the armistice, and was designed "to poison the minds of the people to such an extent that the profiteers could further increase prices and place the blame on labor."

While not naming the attorney general directly, Healy told the board that the "crusade" of a "high government official" against radicals was "undoubtedly for the purpose of aiding in the campaign of certain employers of the country to secure laws establishing involuntary servitude."

He referred to sedition laws proposed in Congress and said that while framed "ostensibly to eradicate bolshevism and anarchism," they would have tied labor "hand and foot."

Healy concluded with the statement that if "Government officials and Congress had given as much attention to curbing profiteers as they did to pounding and hounding wage-earners, the cost of living would have decreased to figures within reason."

After Healy completed his statement, Bert M. Jewel, president of the railway department of the American Federation of Labor, presented the wage demands of the railroad shop-workers. He furnished statistics on the increased cost of living and asked the board to grant such an advance in pay as would enable the shopmen to live at the accepted American standard.

BUSINESS NOW AND TOMORROW

President Charles H. Sabin, Guaranty Trust Company of New York: "Fundamentally, economic conditions in this country are sound and in the ordinary course of events should remain so. There is abundant reason for caution, but no sound justification for pessimism. The United States is the most solvent and greatest 'going concern' in the world, or the world's history. We can continue to enjoy prosperity, if we will but practice common sense and fundamental economic principles—if we will only conserve our credit resources by using our credits for essential enterprises, and not for non-essential purposes; by increasing, and not decreasing, our production of necessities, and by saving, instead of wasting, individually and collectively."

Armour & Co.: "Some forecaster predicted a panic in 1920 and 1921, but I believe there is nothing in the situation to cause special alarm. We are optimistic for the future."

John S. Pinney: "Business will be good so long as you and I make it so by industry, economy, careful credits, buy only for necessary use and not for extravagant show, pay debts promptly, give the other fellow his, and maintain fair and square attitude toward all."

San Pedro.—The Gulf Mail Steamship Company, which has been operating three steamships in the West Coast Mexican trade, has announced their withdrawal until conditions on the Mexican coast become more settled. The Nehalem came from Mexico recently and has been put into service between San Pedro and Gray's Harbor, Wash. Two other freighters now in Mexican ports will be diverted as soon as they return, it was announced. The vessels handled freight only.

THE THORN-WAY.

Life bore a bitter burden,
And all its gain seemed loss,
Its hopes and fears
At the Place of Tears,
On the thorn-way to a Cross,
And the sweet Heavens withheld their light—
Lost were the stars at night.

No light to guide the lonely,
With Heaven's hope withdrawn,
And the Darkness heard
The weeping word
Of souls that prayed for Dawn.
Then the lips of Love kissed the darkness white;
"Out of the darkness—Light!"

This Word, that stilled the sighing—
The sorrow and soul-strife;
"Why should Life die
'Neath a darkened sky
When One hath died for Life?" And Life looked up from the thorn-dark sod
—To a Cross, in the Light of God.

RETAIL PRICE OF FLOUR UP 40 CENTS

Family Sack of 49 Pounds Will Set Father Back Just Three Dollars and Ninety-Three Cents

San Francisco.—California family flour advanced 40 cents a barrel May 5, following a wholesale increase attributed to raises in the wages of millers' employees and in freight charges. Beginning May 6 the housewife, said Frank B. Connolly, secretary of the Retail Grocers' Association, will have to pay the storekeeper as follows:

Quarters (49-pound sacks), $3.93; eighths (24 1/2-pound sacks), $2; 10-pound sacks, 87 cents; 5-pound sacks, 45 cents.

There has been no higher market in this country since the Civil War, said Connolly, with the exception of the brief high spell just before America declared war on Germany.

Another increase in the wholesale price of sugar was announced when the California Hawaiian Sugar Refining Company quoted $22.75 per hundred to jobbers. This brings the company's price to the level of a quotation made by the Western Sugar Refinery. The price to the housewife, which for a week has been in most stores 27 cents a pound, is not expected to be affected by the new wholesale price.

Secretary Connolly of the Retail Grocers' Association said that, barring outside influence such as possible freight rate increase, he does not expect more than 27 cents a pound will be demanded at retail until a new wholesale allocation is made by the refineries. But he predicted another increase in wholesale and retail rates in the near future.

2 BODIES EXHUMED; WIDOW IS ARRESTED ON MURDER CHARGE

Stockton, Mo.—Mrs. C. H. Decker, wife of a farmer who died last December at his home near Canemill, in this county, is under arrest here awaiting a preliminary hearing on a charge of murder, following an analysis of the vital organs of her husband, which, according to a report received from the laboratory at the State University at Columbia, revealed poison in sufficient quantities to have caused his death.

Decker, who was 52 years old, died suddenly and it was believed that death was due to the after-effects of influenza. Less than two weeks later Mrs. King Bruce, living in the same neighborhood, died suddenly. Soon afterward, according to information in the hands of Prosecuting Attorney Potter, Mrs. Decker went to the Bruce home as housekeeper.

Decker's body was exhumed at the request of a brother, George Decker. Developments in the case led the authorities to visit the Rice Cemetery, near Dadsville, where the body of Mrs. Bruce was exhumed and the viscera forwarded to the State University laboratory for analysis.

TROOPS GUARD SKY PILOT
BEING TRIED FOR MURDER

Brooksville, Ky.—Troops with machine guns mounted at vantage points are guarding the courthouse here, while in a small room inside a jury is deliberating on the fate of Rev. Thomas Marksberry, 28 years old, charged with having robbed and stabbed to death and then dismembered and buried the body of his best friend, Jesse Glenn, a trader.

Threats were openly uttered that Marksberry should be lynched if the jury failed to return a verdict of guilty with the full penalty.

At the trial and requiring examination of 250 talesmen, it was testified the preacher had Glenn's car and had sold dogs and guns belonging to the dead man and wore his shoes.

Marksberry charged he was the victim of a frame-up by Glenn's assassins.

Los Angeles.—Word has been received here that Governor Stephens had denied a requisition from Florida for the extradition of Laura Thompson, Emily Hess and C. H. Reader, sought for the alleged theft of railway tickets. The three came here recently from Miami. They were at liberty on bonds pending the extradition ruling.

The Biggest Show.

For about an hour Aunt Mirandy's three dusky offspring had been "pestering" her to take them to the circus. The big tent had just been pitched three or four blocks away, and there was great excitement in the neighborhood.

"Now you all go on away," commanded Aunt Mirandy. "I gotta work to buy yo' grub an' yo' clo's. I ain't got no time to take yo' nowhere."

"Den ask pappy to take us," pleaded one of the youngsters.

"Huh! Yo' pa ain't got no intrus' in no circus a-tall, a-tall. No, suh!" Then, after a pause, she added contemptuously. "He ain't got de slightest ambition for no circus since he done hab de de delirious trembles."—New York Globe.

TWO ORPHANS

ONE day Bab Rabbit was playing around the woods when he met Tom Kitten. "Where are you going?" asked Bab Rabbit, for at first he thought Tom was one of his relatives, he looked so much like his family.

"Oh, I am going to play I am an orphan and get a fiddle; then everyone will give me mice. I expect I'll get rich because I saw a hand-organ man playing on the street and he got lots of pennies."

"I wonder if I could get some young radishes if I played, too?" asked Bab.

"I should not care for mice, you know."

"Come along with me. I am sure we can get lots of things," said Tom Kitten.

Off they ran up to the farm over the hill, and hanging in the barn they found an old fiddle with one string and a drum with a hole in it.

"We will have to look poor and forsaken if we want everyone to give us things," said Tom. "I'll make a hole in my coat and you tear your stocking."

Oh, such a sight as those two creatures were when a little later they went along the road playing the old fiddle and the drum.

But the mice or the radishes did not come, as they thought. Instead they made such bad music that all the cats in Catville threw tin cans after them, and by night time they were two very hungry and tired little fellows.

"We might try your woods," said Tom. "My family does not seem to like our music; but when it is a little

CALOMEL MAKES YOU SICK. UGH!

"Dodson's Liver Tone" bette-than calomel and can not salivate.

Calomel loses you a day! You know what calomel is. It's mercury; quick silver. Calomel is dangerous. It crashes into your bile like dynamite cramping and sickening you. Calomel attacks the bones and should never be put into your system.

When you feel bilious, sluggish constipated and all knocked out and believe you need a dose of dangerous calomel, just remember that your druggist sells for a few cents a large bottle of Dodson's Liver Tone, which is entirely vegetable and pleasant to take and is a perfect substitute for calomel. It is guaranteed to start your liver without stirring you up inside, and can not salivate.

Don't take calomel! It makes you sick the next day; it loses you a day's work. Dodson's Liver Tone straightens you right up and you feel great. Give it to the children because it is perfectly harmless and doesn't grip. —Adv.

Supt. Wood For Consolidation

The best education for country children! State superintendent Will C.
Wood, tells of a visit to a consolidated school in Iowa, near Cedar Falls, where the farmers have made good that motto, with a 13-room brick building, five acres of ground, equipment and all amounting to $90,000.

Six years ago, 11 struggling districts maintained 11 small schools. Observing that these schools, that served an excellent purpose years ago, were not giving the children the educational advantages comparable with the cities, the people voted for consolidation and bonds.

This district covers 38 square miles, and most of the children are transported.
Without our good roads, and not being able to use motor vehicles, the children leave earlier and arrive home later than would be true here. In such a territory as this, 8:30 a. m. would probably be early enough for the most distant.

Here are some concrete facts showing the success of the plan:
The percentage of attendance under the old plan was 73 1/2 per cent during the year; under the consolidated plan it was 80 1/2 per cent.

Under the old plan, the average school year was 117 days; under the consolidated plan, 143 days.

Under the old plan, nine pupils in the 11 districts now comprising the union, completed the eighth grade; under the consolidated plan, 38 pupils completed the eighth grade.

Under the old plan, the cost of schooling was 27 cents per pupil per hour; under the consolidated plan, the cost is 18 cents per pupil per hour.

A recent inquiry of the 120 families living in the consolidated district showed only three who would prefer the old plan—as unanimous as an American community could be.

Consolidation is a success in Iowa.
The number of consolidated districts in that state runs into the thousands. It is a success in Indiana, Minnesota, North Dakota, Nebraska, Colorado and Kansas.
Why not California? We have good roads and open winter weather. We have children as good as the best. Why not give them advantages as good as those offered in the Orange Consolidated School? We cannot consolidate many outlying districts, but we ought to consolidate most of our valley schools.
Think it over.

Have Your Children Been Examined?

Campbell community is to have the benefit of a general Welfare Day, which will be held at the Campbell Grammar school on Saturday, May 15.

All children under six years of age will be eligible for examination, and there will be doctors and nurses in attendance; Dr. W. I. Merrill, and our community nurse, with others from the Good Cheer clinic, in San Jose.

Two prizes will be offered for children receiving the most perfect physical record.

Children who have been examined previously, and the parents have been trying to improve their record, may be re-examined, and those who have no record should be brought, to see how they measure up.

The Lighting District formation election was carried in Campbell Wednesday by an overwhelming vote, the count being 104 for and 3 against. With this showing of "ayes," the supervisors will probably proceed at once to form such a district and authorize installation of lights as soon as possible.

Who got Henderson's goat? It's got.
It strayed from the home place on Dry Creek the first of the week, probably looking for a clothesline or can yard.
It is thought it may have followed a "tin hizzie." Well, anyway, it belongs to L. J. Henderson.

The N. and S. Club, of Los Gatos Road, and the Cambrian Club, spent a very pleasant afternoon Thursday, May 6, with Mrs. C. E. Hanger. After a neighborly chat, a short program was given. Mrs. Woodberry contributed a reading on the H. C. L. problem, with the motto, "Watch and Save." Members of the club responded with a favorite recipe, and an opportunity was given for asking questions. Many helpful suggestions were brought out. Mrs. Hanger's humorous recipe, "How to Cook Husbands to Make them Tender," was a departure from the usual, and caused much merriment. Mrs. Warren Shelly sang two songs and Olive Hanger played and sang in a pleasing manner. The absent member, Mrs. Duncan, was sent a potted plant, with good wishes for her speedy recovery. Dainty refreshments were served by the hostess.
